SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 29, 1853.

We publish this morning the official proceedings of an anti-railroad meeting in this city yesterday. It supersedes an editoral notice we had prepared. We understood that the meeting nominated Gen. HARDESS and B. M BARNES, Esq., as candidates for the Legislature; but as the official report makes no mention of the nomination, we may have been mistaken.

REV. DR. EATON, President of Union University, Murfreesborough, will preach at the First Baptist Church, to-day: Morning service 104 o'clock, evening, 74 o'clock.

THE FINE ARTS.-There are now on exhibition at W. MEREDITH'S Action room a splendid collection of paintings embodying original landscape views from the first American artists, with a great variety of European scenery, Scriptural, Historical and Romantic pieces, &c. This collection will be sold to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. The ladies, and gentlemen of taste and fortune should not fail to attend this sale. Such an inducement is seldom offered in this city for procuring valuable works of art.

P. T. BARNUH'S MUSEUM AND MENAGERTE -- Our readers will perceive that this famous exhibition will be here on the 11th of June. It needs but a glance at the advertisement, to convince the most skeptical of the superior attractions to be presented.

THE LIVING AND DEAD .- Notwithstanding all are aware our Creator has endowed the human race with thinking and reflecting faculties, yet, from a want of proper cultivation, many are foolish enough to reflect on their maker for their apparent inequality. In order to elevate our faculties to their zenith, it is necessary to grapple with great and small matters. Yet to insure sufficient happiness in this world, and to prepare for the next, minor matters alone are sufficient, especially, when the mind is prepared to free itself from the idea of locality to obtain wisdom. When this is accomplished, skepties will be prepared to visit J. H. Cunny's Furniture rooms, on College street, and appreciate not only the wisdom, but the taste displayed in his home manufactured bedsteads, bureaus, toilete, wash-stands, lounges, sociables, sofas, chairs, wardrobes, cribs. &c., which are all calculated not only for the comforts but the luxurics of life. Did it end here, this alone would be inducement sufficient to recompense the visitor or purchaser, but on a minute examination of this establishment, it adto meet this emergency, wisdom is displayed in the construction of the metallic air tight coffin, which is as cheap as the wooden structure, and combines advantages of preserving the body for inspection or

The Bon Air Springs, and James Springs, formerly Beckwith's, in the immediate vicinity, are now open for the reception of visitors. We understand that the proprietors of these Springs have made ample arrangements for those who may wish to enjoy the wild sports and mountain scenery, which abound in this romantic region. -- 6t.daw."

5th Resolved, That if it shall appear, upon a fell and fair examination of the list of signatures so obtained by the committee, that a clear and decided majority of the legal voters of the county are appended to the petitions, said list shall be delivered to said chairman, and by him presented to the county court, at its next meeting.

Gen. W. G. Harding was then called for and addressed the meeting in an able and lucid argument, in favor of the resolutions. The meeting was also addressed by Dr. Overton and Mr. A. B. Andrew Ewing, Esq., was also called, and addressed the meeting in opposition to the policy of levying taxes by the votes of the people for railroad purposes, but against the redress proposed in the resolutions. DESPERATE RENCOUNTER.-We have from a passenger in last evening's Bardstown stage, the part culars of a desperate affray which occurred at Mr Washington yesterday. We shall first detail its origin as communicated to us. Some time last winter Stephen Beard, of Nelson, and two men named McMechen and Roberts, of Washington county, stopped at the house of Henry Moore, of the latter the citizens of Davidson county assembled at the county. They were all friends, and had concluded to remain at Moore's house all night. Beard offer ed some insignity to Moore's wife, who told her asband of it. It was then concluded by Moore, McMechen, Roberts, and Pyles, (the latter father R. M. Barnes and W. O. Harris Secretaries. The in law of Moore,) to take Beard out of the bed and Chairman having briefly explained the objects of liave him whipped by a negro. He offered to mak any reparation demanded, but McMechen and Ro Beard notified McMechen and Roberts at the time that he would have satisfaction out of them sooner or later. A few weeks ago Beard met Roberts in the streets of Bloomfield, and, having a cowhide with one hand and a pistol with the other. cowhided Roberts unmercifully, which was not resented by the latter.

Yesterday McMeechen and Wade Moore (a brother of Heary) were passengers in the Bardstown stage. Beard got on the stage at a way-station and ook an outside seat. When the stage reached Mt. thington, where the passengers usually dine, Board got off at the first tavern, drew a revolver and called on McMechen. McMechen also drew a revolver. Both fired nearly simultaneously. At the first fire Beard's pistol snapped, but the other four shots took effect, one ball entering McMechen's back, near the shoulder-blade, the other his arm, the third his neck, and the fourth taking off some of the skin of his band. McMechen fired four times and Moore twice at Beard without effect. McMechen and Moore were arrested and recognized, but Beard e'aded the vigilance of the officers. McMeexpress the wishes of the majority of the legal co-cinen's wounds are serious, but it is thought not

The part also decided in the same case, that where an Lasurance Company of Indiana opens an office in Cincinnati, and issues policies there by an agent, under the laws and comity of the State of Obio, the Company are amenable to the laws and courts of State of Ohio, and where process on the agent of the Company is served in that State, as required by the laws of Ohio, a judgment rendered against Company is conclusive between the parties in a suit upon the record. In the winter of 1855, I was attacked with a severe pain, which was gradually extended throughout the whole right side and leg; at the same time, a total prestration of my physical system; also, my leg had shrank to about two thirds of its common size. Iprocured the attendance of a skillful practitioner who pronounced my disease one of the worst forms of there complaint. He said my case was one not easily hundled, but preser bed for me. I remained under his treatment until I was satisfied he could not help me. I then procured of your agent at this place, W. A. Beers, two bottles of Guyantt's Velice Bock and Sarsaparilla, from which I received a was amount of benefit. After having taken four bottles more I was able to pursue my business without any inconvenience, and have been since that then a well man, while but a short time since I was confined to my bed three-fourths of the time; and I cannot ascribe the return of my health to any other cause than by the agency of that truly valuable medicine, Guyant's Velice Bock and Sarsaparilla.
